

Financial Aid:

We balance our desire to support every teacher, or those who want to become teachers, against the need for financial stability in bringing you these high-quality programs. Limited financial aid is available.

Before applying for financial aid, please explore family resources as well as outside sources of funds and financial aid such as grants from foundations, organizations, or private donors, and professional development funds from your school.

Refer to the website for deadlines and due dates for financial aid applications and award decisions. <https://www.waldorfhandwork.org/teacher-development>

To apply for financial aid,

1. Fill out and submit the Handwork Teacher Training program application form along with the nonrefundable $75 USD application fee.
2. You will be contacted to set up an enrollment interview to answer any questions.
3. Write a brief statement of the reason for your need, and tell us what you (or your school) can reasonably afford.
4. Send your financial aid request to elizabeth@waldorfhandwork.org
